The best rooms

to say about
the people who live in them.
